Safeguarding Awareness

Safeguarding Awareness Training is a half-day course suitable for any person having access to children, including organisations such as schools, early years, residential staff, Church Groups, Sports Clubs, Youth Groups etc. This replaces what was originally known as level 1 safeguarding training.

The course covers the following areas:

- Legislation and implications for practitioners.
- The different types of abuse as outlined by the Local Safeguarding Partnerships.
- The signs and symptoms of the different types of abuse.
- The impact of the abuse.
- Abusive behaviour by professionals.
- Risk factors and vulnerable groups.
- Lessons from serious case reviews.
- Levels of Need.
- Escalation procedures.
- Referral processes.
